

GOLDMAN SACHS: The GS Guide to Singapore

Our Singapore office is in the city's downtown core area and we have two locations, one on either side of the Singapore River

Singapore includes more than 50 islands, most of which are uninhabited

Our offices are on Raffles Link and Anson Road

Singapore means "Lion City" in Sanskrit

Enjoy fantastic views of the Singapore F1 race track from our 7th floor boardroom!

Approximately 47% of Singapore is under green cover, making Singapore one of the world's greenest cities

Just a short jog from our office are the beautiful Gardens by the Bay and Marina Barrage

Singapore is among the 20 smallest countries in the world with 724.2 square kilometers of total land area

Singapore's Bukit Timah Nature Reserve holds more species of tress than the entire North American continent

Quotes:

- Our favorite Community TeamWorks: "Adopt-A-Dogation allows us to take care of stray/abandoned/rescued dogs for a day" – Doug, Global Investment Research
- "Thanks to Connect Asia, we have regular events where the entire GS Engineering team comes together and has fun" – Yiyi, Engineering

Our favorite landmarks:

- Merlion
- Mariana Bay's Rooftop Infinity Pool
- Esplanade Theater

4 Official Languages:

- Malay
- English
- Mandarin
- Tamil
- Singlish is also quite uniquely Singaporean

Our favorite hiking trail – Macritchie Reservoir Treetop Walk

Singaporean food is a fusion of Chinese, Malay and Indian – reflecting the country’s cultural melting pot

Jewel Changi Airport has a 40M-tall rain vortex, is the world’s tallest indoor waterfall – just one feature of this world class airport

See yourself here. Click the apply button on our students or professionals pages to explore opportunities in Singapore and around the world